Proposition Made To Take Over Sonoma City's Paved Streets

Hard Luck Follows Fast On Trail Of Bootlegger George

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION MAKES CITY AN OFFER

Agrees To Take Over and Maintain City Pavement Connecting With the State Highway.

The city trustees met Wednesday evening for the regular September meeting of the board, with all trustees present except H. F. Bates. Bills were audited and ordered paid, and minutes of previous meetings read as usual.

The most important matter up for discussion was the application of the State Highway Commission to take over the city's paved highway on Broadway and Napa streets, connecting with the state highway, for future maintenance. This is in accordance with the new law passed at the last legislature, designed to assist municipalities and make the upkeep of highways through cities more uniform. Division Engineer Skeggs sent Engineer McCurdy to appear before the board and formally make the offer. The point was raised by the trustees that they did not wish to relinquish certain rights over the thoroughfares and so they took the matter under advisement, a meeting having been called for September 11th to discuss the matter fully.

The maintenance crew of the state highway department could give the Sonoma the benefit of highly efficient supervision over the pavement and it would seem that money now spent by the trustees thereon could be used for Plaza improvement.

A change in the drainage system of storm waters on the north side of the Plaza was talked over, complaint having been made that the present plan caused the flooding of the Cuicci property.

Chief of Police James Tate was present at the meeting and reported that he was successful in the collection of business license taxes the past week. He called to the trustees attention the fact that Leo Jacobson was not paying a drayage license, although he sometimes hauls with his

DAUGHTER OF PIONEER FAMILY IS TO WED

The engagement has been announced of Miss Ann Loretta Dowdall, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Dowdall, to Anthony Thomas Souza, Jr., of Alameda. The bride-to-be is one of Sonoma Valley's favorite daughters and is a sister of Miss Irene Dowdall, Mrs. Archie Gale and Mrs. Leslie McKinnon. She was educated in the local schools and has endeared herself to a large circle of friends.

Mr. Souza comes from a well known Alameda City family and is a young man of sterling traits of character. A church wedding is planned for the autumn season.

Dr. Frank Phillips, the coroner, was over from Petaluma Tuesday on official business. His wife and a lady friend accompanied him to Sonoma Valley.

Just Tie Your Little Bull On The Outside

If you are fortunate enough to win the pedigree bull at the benefit barn dance of the Glen Ellen fire department, you can tie your little bull outside, so the committee states. The big dance on October 3rd will be brimful of surprises. All sorts of live stock and other valuable contributions have been given to the Glen Ellen folks for the good cause. Registered Durocs from the Jack London ranch, $10 merchandise orders from local stores, and geese, pedigree mince-meat, roosters, pigeons, etc., are to be disposed of. Chief Blinn Bryant says the barn dance will be a bully affair.

COLD WEATHER DELAYS GRAPES, TOMATOES

The unusually cool weather which has been prevailing for the latter part of August and with the entrance of September is causing great concern among vineyardists and growers of tomatoes. It is poor ripening weather and the sugar content of the grapes may be seriously affected.

The grape crop in Sonoma Valley this year is about a 65 per cent crop, all varieties, including Bouchets, being light except Zinfandels. As the Zinfandel grape is Sonoma's principal variety and the price around $65, our vineyardists are expecting to have a profitable season. White grapes from which Sonoma's most famous wines were long made, are very light this year and prices are around $35. They are not in demand in the East as are the dark juice varieties.

Between 50 and 55 thousand carloads of grapes will be shipped from California this year. There will be no shortage of cars or shooks, so local grape men declare. Picking will start in about two weeks.

The demand for grapes is good and some buyers are offering prices above the exchange price. Altogether the 1925 grape outlook in Sonoma Valley is excellent if the weather remains fair throughout the harvest and a warm spell follows the present cool weather.

The Sebastiani cannery, which was to have started on the tomato pack during the latter part of August, will not open for a week or 10 days. The cannery, however, is being put in excellent shape for the work and is well equipped to handle the 1925 pack.

TWO RAIDS THIS WEEK

Deputy Sheriff Ryan and Sheriff John Boyes raided Clements Inn this week and seized some good white wine which the restaurant man is alleged to have had in stock.

Charles Miller, of a Boyes Springs camping resort, was arrested by the county enforcement officers for possessing a bottle of liquor at his little roadside store and soft drink stand, "Shady Nook." Miller was given a "rider" by the court and immediately left the valley.

Clement's case is up before Judge Vaughan of Santa Rosa.

Native Sons and Daughters In Mission Period Costumes To Be In Parade Sept. 9th

Sonoma, site of the last Mission in California and home of the Bear Flag Republic, will make a proud showing at the Diamond Jubilee, thanks to the wheat Zella Fleiger and Bebe Lour-enthusiasm, energy and generosity of deaux will typify the grain fields of Sonoma Parlor No. 111, N. S. G. W., our Sonoma Valley. The children's and Sonoma Parlor No. 209, N. D. costumes were designed by Miss Dor-G. W., who will enter one of the finest floats in the historic parade on September 9th, in San Francisco.

The Mission period of the vast pageant which will tell the romantic story of our Golden State's history who will act as escort to the float has been chosen by Sonoma to tell the story of the last Mission on the El Camino Real, founded in 1823 by Padre Altimira. The Mission period of the pageant will be beautifully portrayed by the entries of several California Parlors, beginning with the landing of the padres in the ship San

San Diego Mission, Antonio, at San Diego, in 1769; the San Diego Mission; San Francisco Mission de Assisi; Fra Junipero Serra ends his earthly labors at El Carmelo, 1874; and other features until at the end of this period, 1823 will be seen the Mission San Francisco de Solano float representing Sonoma's early history. The float has been designed and built by E. Murphy, of San Francisco and will be drawn by four white horses, at whose heads Spanish soldiers and padres will walk. On both sides of the float and preceding it, the beautifully costumed participants will march. On the float near the Mission's replica, dark eyed Costumes consist of one piece khaki material Indian dresses trimmed with self-colored fringe and red lining, and fancy head pieces.

Fifty New Students Are Enrolled At High School

The Sonoma Valley Union High School opened on Monday, August 31st, with a normal attendance for the first week, 154 enrolling. The attendance by classes is as follows:

First year, 50.
Second year, 29.
Third year, 39.
Fourth year, 36.

In a normal school, there should be about four times as many first year students as Seniors. The indication during the last two years is that there is a slight falling away of first year students and a decrease in drop-outs of the older students. Last year and this year, 50 per cent of the entering class graduate. The average among schools has been only 25 per cent in past years.

There has been a considerable increase in enrollment in college preparatory classes over last year.

The Smith-Hughes classes in agriculture are small in number. This, however, is expected until the new agricultural teacher builds up his course through publicity among the farmers. Half of his salary is paid by the state. However, the school will not benefit from this until the beginning of another year.

The shop classes consist of farm mechanics, auto mechanics and carpentry. The money raised from the sale of the old high school property is being used for the improvement of the grounds and the construction of an addition to the present shop building.

Has Trustee Henry Bates A Double?

City Trustee Henry Bates received a $15 bill this week for gas and oil from a Napa garage. He was a surprised man, as he had not been in our neighboring city for some time. He rang up the garage whose proprietor he knows and asked for an explanation. "You were here and bought the gas and oil," the garage man told Bates. "I sold it to you myself. Don't you remember?" Henry denied that he had ever been near the place or taken aboard a cargo of fuel for his automobile. Now the question is: Has Bates, Sonoma's handsome city official, a double, or does he auto in his sleep?

ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF A DIAMOND RING

The disappearance of a diamond ring owned by Mrs. Irving Brusky led to the arrest Monday of John Mazza, who had been working for the Brusky's with the hay press outfit. The youth is alleged to have burglarized the quarters where Mrs. Brusky had been washing dishes and laid the ring aside while she did her work. Suspicion attached itself to Mazza, recently liberated from jail in Napa, where he had been mixed up in trouble over an automobile. He had also paid a fine in Vallejo recently following a charge that he had aided in the looting of a home at that place.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan sweated the boy, who acknowledged that he had "found" the ring and presented it to a young lady in Napa. The officer, following Mazza's statement, went to Napa, recovered the ring and upon complaint of Irving Brusky lodged the youth in jail. He is charged with burglary.

Mazza, who is the son of respected Sonoma residents who have helped him out of trouble repeatedly, is believed to be not quite right mentally, as he has shown a marked tendency of late to commit one wrong after another. He had been working here but two days when taken into custody on the latest charge. He is 20 years of age.

MRS. PAULI WINNER AT CARD PARTY

Mrs. Ada Pauli captured the first prize at the Rebekah and I. O. O. F. whist party Wednesday evening. The prize was a beautiful coral crochet beaded chain made by Miss Miller. George Angove was high score among the gentlemen present. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Barr and Bert Kerner.

Ten tables participated in the party and ice cream and cake was served after the card game.

A number of Sonoma friends of Miss Charlotte Newman will attend the wedding of the former popular Sonoma teacher Wednesday in San Francisco. The young lady will be married at St. John's Catholic church at high noon to Leo A. Vaughn.

GEORGE CAVAGLIA'S HOUSE AND AUTO DESTROYED BY FIRE

Under Sentence to Pay $500 Fine, Sonoma Man, Recently Out of Hospital, Suffers Loss.

Hard luck has been pursuing George Cavaglia, the dapper young man about town, known as "Bootlegger George," who recently was badly burned after an explosion at his home at Verano, where officers later found a still, some liquor and other evidence of illicit manufacture.

Tuesday night of this week, about 1 o'clock, Cavaglia's house burned to the ground, George just escaping with his life and a few effects. A few weeks ago Cavaglia ran from a small shed at his home, all ablaze from a gasoline explosion, so he said, and was so burned about the face and arms that he had to be taken to a hospital. The same night a fire broke out in the shed in which the explosion occurred and burned it completely. Officers, however, brought from the glowing embers a still and liquor outfit.

Cavaglia was arrested. For days he was in such pain and suffering from skin grafting due to his burns that he could not leave the hospital. Just recently he left the sanitarium and was then brought into court to answer a charge of manufacture and possession of illegal liquor. He pleaded not guilty. Last Saturday in the Sonoma justice court he changed his plea to guilty and was fined $500 by Judge Small, with an alternative of 90 days in jail. He did not have all his fine money, but the court, taking into consideration his hospital expenses, etc., permitted him to pay a portion of it and allowed him time in which to raise the remainder.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Tuesday night of this week, fire broke out in Cavaglia's home and garage at Verano and although the Boyes Springs fire department arrived to battle the flames, house and car went up in smoke.

ST. FRANCIS CHURCH BARBECUE AND BAZAAR

Among coming events of the early fall season is the barbecue picnic at the Mervyn Hotel grounds on Sunday, September 27th, for the benefit of St. Francis parish. The beautiful grounds along the creek will be ideal for the outing and a barbecue is to be a feature of the big day. Games and dancing will be enjoyed by the young folks.

Instead of the usual Catholic fair a regular two day bazaar will be held in Sonoma this year for St. Francis church. The dates are October 23rd and 24th. Handsome and useful articles will be on sale and a classy vaudeville program provided for both evenings.

Rev. Father Byrne and the ladies of the parish are making great preparations for the bazaar. The Amistad Club is disposing of many tickets for the linen chest.

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Mrs. Julia Pyburn, 70, a sister of Joe Escolle of El Verano, passed away in San Francisco August 24.

Sign painters of the Shell Oil Company have been lettering the Pioneer Garage, which recently received a new coat of paint.

Seventy bottles of white wine and some jackass brandy were seized by county officers in two raids in Sonoma Valley last Saturday. The largest find was made at Clement's Inn, at Fetters Springs. A bottle containing jackass was found at Shady Nook where Charles Miller was arrested and later released on bail deposited with Judge Small, at Sonoma. Afterwards he was fined $250 with the understanding that he would leave the valley. The raids were conducted by Deputy Sheriff Ryan and County Operative E. F. Westphal.

George Cavaglia received a sentence with a kick in it when Judge Small pronounced the word "guilty," at Sonoma last Saturday and attached a fine of $500. The debonair bootlegger is said to have been stunned by the heavy fine, but recovered and is now wondering how it all happened.

George Colgan, veteran express messenger of the Santa Rosa branch of the S. P., and Mrs. Colgan celebrated their 33rd wedding anniversary at their home in Santa Rosa on Friday of last week.

E. C. Corrigan, roadmaster of the N. W. P. and member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, accompanied by other officials, are inspecting the coast lines of the company. The trip is being made in the big motor car used for official inspection trips.

Bennie Meyer, state highway employee and horse trader by inclination, who is now working on the new highway being built a Vineburg, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan recently on a warrant issued in Santa Rosa, charging him with disturbing the peace and cruelty to animals. He was fined $15 on each charge before Justice Vaughan of Santa Rosa last week, who severely scored Meyer for his treatment of the horse. Meyer admitted that he was at fault, telling the court his temper had been sorely tried by the fractious horse. Post Master J. E. Mobley of Santa Rosa who watched Meyer beat the dumb animal, swore out the warrant. Meyer was also ordered to remain out of Santa Rosa Township for six months.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McKinnon and family were week end visitors at the home of Mrs. McKinnon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Dowdall. The McKinnons live at Concord.

Fifty thousand rainbow trout were placed in Sonoma Creek last Sunday morning under the direction of the California State Game Commission. The trout were shipped in ice cooled cans from the state hatchery at Ukiah and were placed in the creek by Ned Wilson, Kenwood merchant.

Mrs. W. Wohlson of Sonoma Vista is in San Francisco, where she will remain for several days to attend the Diamond Jubilee.

A goodly number of El Verano residents will be in San Francisco next week attending the Diamond Jubilee. The celebration will be one of the largest and best put on since the 1915 world's fair. One of the greatest parades ever witnessed will be held on Admission Day, September 9th, and Native Sons and Daughters, both old and young will show the colors of their state to the largest number of visitors yet seen in San Francisco. Vice President Dawes and other prominent men of the United States and visitors from European countries will be guests of San Francisco.

Mrs. Sperry and son, Thomas, a San Francisco lawyer, after spending two weeks here, guests of the O'Briens returned to their home Saturday.

Mrs. A. Rossi and daughter have gone to Los Angeles, where they will visit Mrs. Rossi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Block, former residents of El Verano.

L. Lamotte, former owner of the El Verano Villa, now in the real estate game in San Francisco, was an El Verano visitor 1st week.

The El Verano Grammar School opened last Monday with a large attendance. Miss Thole, principal, and Misses O'Farrell and Coleman, who taught here last year, are the instructors this term. They are very popular and were warmly welcomed by their many friends here upon their return.

Miss Anne Dowdall, who has been residing in Berkeley, has returned to her home here for an extended visit with her parents.

Dave Forni and Albert Rossi were motorists to Port Costa on last Saturday.

WILLIAM SHERMAN TAKES NEW OFFICE

William A. Sherman, former Sonoma boy and recently appointed president of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners, took office Tuesday. He succeeds Charles A. Spear.

Mr. Sherman was in San Rafael on Saturday night at the Masonic dedication and was congratulated by many Sonoma friends, who met him there on this occasion.

Governor Richardson paid high compliment to Sherman's ability and character when he drafted him for the important post. In assuming the new office, Mr. Sherman said:

"I can see a splendid opportunity, in our respective positions, to increase the mutual respect and admiration that San Francisco and Los Angeles should bear for one another, while at the same time moving forward as we are destined to do. It will be some time before I can thoroughly familiarize myself with the duties of my position, but I shall at all times endeavor to conduct the affairs of the commission with the single view of building so that our port, a pivotal post for the great Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys and the coast counties north and south, will be capable of taking care of the vast tonnage of incoming and outgoing commodities destined to be handled across our wharves and docks."

DIAMOND JUBILEE BOXING CARNIVAL

San Francisco is going about the staging of the Diamond Jubilee in a big way, with "superlative" describing nearly every feature of the gigantic celebration that opens today.

But the term "superlative" is not sufficient to describe the great Diamond Jubilee boxing carnival, to be held Monday afternoon as an important part of the big celebration.

Two world champions—Jack Dempsey and Mike Ballerino, world's junior lightweight king—are on the program, together with nine other boxers of outstanding merit. Gathering all of these celebrities under one card affords out of town sport lovers a splendid chance to see many of the best boxers in the world in action for one admission price while these sport lovers are in San Francisco attending the big Jubilee. The boxing carnival is officially part of the Jubilee program. All other activities cease Monday while the bouts are on.

Dempsey, back in his old form, starts his ring work again by meeting two heavyweights in four rounds of boxing. Bill Larue, prominent California business man and club man and former national amateur heavyweight champion, has agreed to be one of the men to meet Dempsey, and he's training hard, sure to make a good showing.

Ballerino meets Lew Paluso, outstanding contender for his title, in a 10 round decision match. It looks like a winner, as both are fast and mix it continually. Jack Silver, great California lightweight, is to meet Tommy Murphy, New Jersey sensation, in another 10 round affair. Silver is well known throughout Sonoma Valley. A number of other big numbers are also on the bill.

This is easily the greatest boxing show staged in the West, and is the contribution of the boxing game to the Diamond Jubilee fun. California voters legalized boxing last November and the sportsmen have arranged this super-card as an acknowledgment to those who supported boxing, staging the big show at a time when thousands of people will be visiting San Francisco for the Diamond Jubilee.

ADMISSION DAY, 1925

Admission Day is a great day with Californians, and particularly the one which will mark our seventy-fifth anniversary.

Almost every day is an admission day with Californians.

We admit we have the greatest State in the Union, the best climate, the finest crops, the most beautiful girls, the best looking men, the most contented cows, the biggest taxes, the most romantic history, the least tramps, slickest politicians, the greatest number of automobiles, the most economical Governor, the finest schools, the most prosperous bootleggers, poorest reformers, the best advertised movie business, richest mines, deepest affections and cleverest writers in America.

On and on we could continue to admit to California's advantages over all her rivals. Florida? Just a fad, a passing show, a dream from which many will soon awaken, to set forth to California, where life is better and investments founded on more than faith and tropical madness.

California, seventy-five years old Wednesday, is still in its youth as countries go, and what magnificent accomplishment has been our Golden State's. We will view with pride and satisfaction the pageantry of this Admission Day and be willing to admit ever after that the Bear Flag never dreamed of this proud day in our history as a State, the day which was ushered in when the Bear and the Star became emblems of that flag hoisted on Sonoma's Plaza in 1846.

YOUNG CRIMINALS

We do not have to take statistics and prison records to verify the fact that young criminals are the problem of the age in this country. In our own county the newspapers tell the tale of crimes committed daily by mere lads. What is to be done about it? Something drastically different than the remedy we have been trying. The probation theory and the juvenile court have not had the effect of stopping recruits to crime. Leniency and charity toward young offenders have had the opposite effect. There is no fear as a deterrent.

Let us try a strong dose of the old wood-shed session with a strap, or an official application of the over-the-knee spanking idea. Such punishment has gone out of date in home discipline, has almost disappeared from the schools, but is due for a comeback to curb young criminals.

"Spare the rod and spoil the child" seems to be an old adage with a new meaning, and particularly applicable would be the rod to potential criminals, now pampered, headstrong youths with little discipline and no fear of the sub-sisterly punishment which has been in vogue in recent years. Softening influences and leniency to youth are producing hard-boiled specimens from which the convict ranks are filled and the waiting list is big.

The criminal does not need a jolt half so bad as the society which is tolerating these conditions and making no effort at more rigid discipline for boys or girls who go wrong.

BRASS TACKS AND TAXES

Income tax prying is denounced by the Vanderbilt newspapers, which declare that it is an intrusion on private business matters and they decline to publish a list of people's income on that score.

To our mind, the income tax itself is wrong in theory and socialistic in spirit. We believe that it would be far more just to tax liquors for revenue. Then those who indulged themselves, whether thrifty or unthrifty, would pay into the vast fund which could be put to good use by the government. The income tax puts a premium on success and makes the provident, constructive money-makers ed pay the liquor tax. Quite a step of the country go to a lot of work toward real prohibition.

But why assess income tax book-keeping and cost to the people in this indirect and unjust way? Why not tax liquor. The rich are credited with using a lot of it, and the poor are accused of often abusing it, even in these days of strict policing, moonshine and canned heat.

Income tax is ultimately written into the cost of everything you buy. No matter how sober and industrious the consumer, he must help pay the penalty of the income tax. If the big tax was against liquor, drinkers alone would pay and they would help to reduce government debt instead of contributing to the prosperity of the land of countless evasive bootleggers. If the government accepts income tax from gottleggers, and the government does, where is the wrong in taxing honestly sold, government regulated liquor?

Perhaps Uncle Sam might then publish the names of those who help

WE ARE DUE FOR AN EYEFUL

With the announcement that an ever increasing number of Fords are to be put on the market in many colors, including green and maroon, we are certainly due for an eyeful. Put on your blinders for the passing show. The gay Fords are coming. Dig up your dough. A riot of color this popular car, for color's the thing, says Henry, the czar. Too long and too dreary, the parade has been black, but you couldn't stop selling 'em, even at that. Lizzie's bright colors with your taste now will trifle, and all on the road are to get quite an eyeful. A kaleidoscope gaudy, the new Ford brigade, and everything else on the line it will fade. Fast colors? You bet! And the color scheme's great. Watch Lizzie get busy with her new bait.

FARCE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

A large crowd attended the one-act farce, "That Rascal, Pat," presented at Mayflower Hall in Glen Ellen on Friday evening of last week under the auspices of the Congregational church of that place.

A short program of music and dancing preceded the play. A duet, "I Live and Love Thee," by Campana, was sung by Mrs. J. C. White and Mrs. Herman Schieck, with piano accompaniment by the latter. This was followed by several vocal and dance numbers by young women of the State Home, in costume, under the direction of Mrs. William Neill.

"That Rascal, Pat," was ably played by a cast of young people, following only two weeks' rehearsing. Excellent work was done by James Bonbright, Mae Boesch and Stanley Larkin. The latter, in the role of Pat McNoggerty, endeavored to serve two masters, incidentally changing a pocketbook in the coat of one for a picture case in that of the other. Entanglements followed, but were finally unraveled.

W. S. Bonbright, under whose direction the play was produced, was the first medalist of the National School of Elocution and Oratory, in Philadelphia, receiving the highest medal of honor from that institution. In 1900, he was known as the author of the New Century Method of Physical Culture, and his work was highly endorsed.

ELDRIDGE GIRL IS HUNTED BY OFFICERS

The hills and canyons along the Mark West Springs road were scoured Monday for traces of Alice Woodward, 19 year old paroled inmate of the Sonoma State Home, who early Sunday afternoon disappeared from the home of Dr. and Mrs. V. Hoffer, of Santa Rosa, where she was employed. The girl, according to reports given police and county officers, abandoned the young Hoffer child during an afternoon stroll.

The Hoffers learned of her disappearance some time later, when the child returned alone to their home, at the junction of the Mark West road and the Redwood Highway. Upon being asked where her companion had gone, she pointed up the road to the springs. Reports were later received that the runaway girl had been seen walking in that direction.

The Woodward girl, despite her age, is said to have the mentality of only a child of 10 years. It was believed she might have made the acquaintance of some one she met in her walk and to have gone either to one of the ranch homes along the road or for a ride with some passing motorists. She was later apprehended.

DO YOU REMEMBER—?

"Oldtimers" who were in Sacramento during the days of gold of the fifties and sixties will recall this scene from Second Street as it appeared in 1859. The postoffice next to the old Union Hotel, the Wells Fargo office, the Eureka Cafe—over 900 feet of street was faithfully reproduced recently for the picturing of the latest western film epic, "The Pony Express." Hundreds of carpenters worked for three weeks in perfecting every detail, from the wide-plank sidewalks up to the shake-shingled awnings.

In front of the old Wells Fargo Banking & Express office the pony express race ends. Just 7 days and 14 hours after a copy of Lincoln's inaugural address left St. Joseph, Mo., it arrived here—2,000 miles on horseback over trackless wilds in less than 8 days!

Wells Fargo Bank & Union Trust Co. of San Francisco, descendants of Wells Fargo & Co., who were operators of the pony express, provided Director James Cruze with much of the authentic material necessary to accurately film the picture.

GLEN ELLEN MEN
VISIT IN NEVADA

A. C. Clarke of Glen Ellen and George Thompson have been touring California and Nevada during the past month. They first went to Nevada and beyond Fallon, where Mr. Clarke inspected mining property in which he is interested. He found them shipping out pay dirt from the mine, with indications for a rich yield very encouraging.

The Sonoma Valley travelers made Reno in one day in their Ford, and on the return trip came around Lake Tahoe via Carson City and out by Truckee.

Having seen the Nevada country, the Valley of the Mooners decided to see their own Redwood Highway, so upon returning home started north. They reveled in the beauties of the redwoods and went as far north as Crater Lake, then back to Mt. Shasta, and home.

The entire trip was most enjoyable and with the exception of rough roads in the vicinity of Crater Lake they report traveling very comfortable.

AUTO ACCIDENTS OF THE PAST WEEK

Last Saturday night as C. Roberti and family were coming along the highway near the Clements ranch in their Dodge car, they met a car driven by a San Rafael man who ran into them and almost caused a very serious accident. The Roberti car was turned completely around by the force of the impact, the fenders bent, the windshield broken and otherwise damaged. Roberti was cut on the hand but aside from that the Sonomans escaped unhurt.

The San Rafael man is said to have been so busy spooning that he did not know which side of the road he was on, although traveling at the rate of 40 miles per hour.

Two San Rafael men, Messrs. La Motte and Johnson, were pinned under their overturned car on the state highway near the Yenni ranch Saturday night. They were rescued by the auto bus and brought to Sonoma for medical treatment. The accident occurred when their machine left the road and overturned as the driver was blinded by the lights of an oncoming truck which he turned out to pass.

LaMotte was so badly injured that he gave symptoms of paralysis and was taken to the sanitarium by Dr. McGrath. Both men were severely cut and bruised.

HARD LUCK PURSUES BOOTLEGGER GEORGE

The cause of the fire is unknown. The underwriters are said to be investigating the liability of insurance companies to pay insurance carried by Cavaglia. It is reported that he collected some damage after the first fire and that the insurance company then notified its Sonoma agent, J. H. Murray, to cancel, on August 31st, all policies written for Cavaglia. Murray, it is said, failed to notify his client, so the policies were in effect at the time of the fire. A $2000 policy was carried on the famous cream colored car which has been "Bootlegger George's" pride, and was the machine destroyed in the fire of this week. The garage and house were under one roof and one theory is that the fire originated in the car.

Representatives of the underwriters who have been investigating the Brovelli winery fire at Santa Rosa have been in Sonoma Valley probing the Verano blaze.

NEW DUCK CLUB AT SCHELLVILLE

The recently organized duck club which comprises leading Santa Rosa and Sonoma sportsmen, has been making some nice improvements at the Burris ranch ponds, which they have leased for the season. The former Marcucci house has been remodeled for a club house and comfortably furnished.

WOMAN DRIVER MAKES BIG HIT WITH DRIVING

A woman motorist caused considerable excitement on Napa street this week when she hit several cars parked on the street near the Sonoma Valley Shoe Store and ended up by running up on to the sidewalk and into Fred Hovey's window. A POWER HOUSE BUILT IN ROCK

Leading from Lake Spaulding Dam, in Nevada County, is a tunnel 4000 feet long thru solid granite. Ordinarily giant regulators would be necessary to govern the flow of water. Engineers of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company conceived the idea of making a cavity in the granite, and there installing a power house instead of regulators. The four walls, roof and floor of this 5000 Horsepower Plant are of granite. Entrance is made thru a hole in the side of the hill. During the midwinter months when the surrounding country is covered with snow it is necessary to go thru specially protected tunnels to reach the plant.

MRS. NEAL HAIG VISITS OLD HOME

Mrs. Neal Haig, of Seattle, formerly Emily Huddart, of Agua Caliente, who has been visiting in California for the past two months, has been spending the week at her mountain ranch in the Valley of the Moon. She has been accompanied by her little son, Neal, and her daughter, Mary. They have been entertained by Mrs. Hicken, lessee of the Huddart ranch. Mrs. Haig formerly lived at Burlingame before moving to the north, and took a prominent part in civic work and club life of her community. She was accounted one of the most capable and brilliant leaders of the peninsula city and her leavetaking was greatly regretted. After leaving Sonoma many years ago, Emily Huddart grew into a beautiful young woman and after her marriage to the well known shipping man, Mr. Haig, they built a lovely home at Burlingame which they still own.

The young matron met many old time friends while here.

Miss Anna Steinkamp has recovered from her operation and is now at the home of her parents in Sonoma Vista, convalescing, where she is visited by many friends.

SUSPICIOUS DUO GET RIDE WITH RUG MAN

The representative of the Alameda Rug Works, who comes to Sonoma every Tuesday, was stopped by a hard belted couple on the road near Napa Junction and asked for a ride. He took them aboard his truck and as they climbed in he noticed that the man carried a big revolver and the woman had a black-jack secreted under her sweater. They told him they wanted to go as far as he was going. At the "Y" between Napa and Vallejo he pulled in at the service station and informed his passengers that he was not going any farther. They got out in a hurry and disappeared down the road. The rug man notified the sheriff's office at Napa who got on their trail.

Friends here of Mike Cummings, who was married last Sunday, extend congratulations and best wishes of a long and happy voyage through life on the sea of matrimony. Mike's friends are many in Sonoma Valley, where he spent many years, having been in business at Sonoma.

G. Damon, who spent two weeks here with his friend, J. Hayman, returned to San Francisco Sunday.

Jimmie Ryan, famous San Francisco racing enthusiast, owner of many fast horses and boss of the San Francisco Driving Club, was a Sonoma Valley visitor Monday, accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. McDevitt and daughter returned from the Summit last Friday after spending the summer months there with Mr. McDevitt.

Mrs. J. Andrews of Sonoma Vista is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Venton, in Oakland.

Mrs. Kate Carriger returned to San Francisco last Saturday after attending to business in the valley.

Miss Lucille Sutherland of Berkeley was visiting her parents here over the week end.

Mrs. P. Ruggeri was an S. P. passenger Monday morning for Richmond.

Roy Chance, garage proprietor, has returned from a visit to his old home in Nevada. He enjoyed the trip in the Sage Brush State, but is glad to be back in sunny California.

Two new cottages, each accommodating 120 inmates, have just been opened at the Sonoma State Home for the feeble minded at Eldridge. The cottages have been named the Dunbar Cottage and Wright Cottage, in honor of Charles O. Dunbar and C. A. Wright, members of the Board of Managers of the institution. The entire electrical system in the main building is now being reconstructed as a matter of safety, replacing work done many years ago. The work is estimated to cost $25,000.

A number of Sonoma Valley racing enthusiasts will make the trip to San Francisco Sunday, where Joe Ryan, crack local driver, will hold the reins over Mission Girl, a fast pacer. The races will be held at the Park Stadium Sunday afternoon, and a number of good races are on the card.

Daniel Curtin, former employee of the Shell Oil Company, was found guilty last week by a jury and sentenced in the court of Judge Claude Puckett in San Francisco. After deliberating six hours, the jury decided that Curtin had been the leading figure in the issuing and sale of between $40,000 and $100,000 worth of bogus Shell Oil scrip books. This is not, however, the Sonoma resident.

Pat Burns, veteran S. P. engineer, after spending several days at his Verano home, returned to Oakland Tuesday, accompanied by his wife.

G. A. Verbeck and wife have returned home from Los Angeles, where Mrs. Verbeck visited with relatives while Mr. Verbeck made a business trip to Chicago.

Robert McGill of Sacramento was an incoming S. P. passenger Sunday morning, spending the day here at the McGill home.

Archie Gale and family of Winters were in Sonoma Valley Sunday visiting relatives.

Miss Irene Ducasse and brother, after a several weeks visit in Fresno with relatives, have returned to reside with the Lavoies during the present school term.

GREAT PLANS FOR BIG OYSTER BUST

Director-General Oliver Clay Hopkins of the 'steenth annual oyster bust and reunion of Petaluma Lodge No. 901, B. P. O. E., which is to be held at Bates Grove in Sonoma Valley on Sunday, September 20th, has issued a proclamation to all Elks as well as their friends, to make no dates for that great day, as every Elk is expected to be present and will be privileged to take their friends. Of course, it will be a stag affair and the committee of which Mr. Hopkins is the head, is preparing a lot of new stunts and a lot of new features, and he states that the oysters will be bigger and better and in greater quantity than ever.

The barbecue, too, will be a feature and there will be a repast that will tempt the epicures and a high grade program that will delight all. It is planned to make this the greatest event of the kind yet held and all indications point to a record attendance and unusual enthusiasm is being manifested. This is one day in the year dedicated to the men folks who will, no doubt, be given the day off by their good wives.

Some of the Bills will convey their better halves to some of the Sonoma Valley springs to spend the day while the Bills cavort in the Bates woods, and will call for their families after the day's festivities are concluded. All roads will lead to Batesville on that eventful day and it is thought more than 1000 people will be present for the big time.—Petaluma Argus.

HARVEST FESTIVAL AND BAZAAR OCT. 2nd

The ladies of the M. E. church announce a harvest festival and supper on Friday, October 2nd. This annual event is always looked forward to and is a great success.

D. Colli was among the jurors who heard testimony in the Wirta damage suit at Santa Rosa this week.

Judge Denny has been visiting his mother at the St. Helena sanitarium.

MRS. WHITING VERY ILL

Mrs. Susan Whiting, who recently visited Sonoma, has been very ill since returning to her city home. She has been under the care of a doctor and two trained nurses, but with her rugged constitution is expected to soon overcome the trouble from which she has suffered.

Raised Checks are made impossible

With the PROTECTU Check System, installed for the exclusive use of Mercantile patrons.

This system enables you to tear off your check, leaving an amount on the margin above which it cannot be raised should it be lost or fall into the hands of dishonest persons. It is the same method the Government has been using for 39 years to safeguard postal money orders.

These checks are now available in folding pocket cases of genuine leather; also in desk check books with two and three checks to the page. These checks eliminate the necessity of a check protector. The cost is trifling.

Safety Valve Column

NOT A BAD IDEA

Editor, Index-Tribune:

What about the proposed bay bridge? Do you think that we residents of Sonoma Valley and the whole county—in fact, all the northern counties—should advocate the proposition?

The bridge over the Golden Gate from San Francisco to Marin county is to greatly benefit the property owners and the general public.

Do you think, Mr. Editor, that in the event of a war with some foreign country, aeroplanes might blow the bridge to pieces? By that time our railroads may have deserted us for lack of patronage, and ferries over the bay by that time may be only few. In the event of such circumstance this part of the country would be paralyzed for a number of years.

If such an amount of capital is to be expended for the benefit of the general public, don't you think, Mr. Editor, it would be better to advocate a tunnel under the bay capable of carrying four railroad tracks and plenty of space for motors and general transportation. It could be arranged in a way that in the event of invasion by a foreign power both ends of the tunnel could be flooded temporarily and emptied after the invasion had ended.

The best way to discuss propositions is through the press.

EVOLUTION

Editor, Index-Tribune:

The Seventh Day Adventists, as a denomination, have unanimously put themselves on record as being opposed to the evolution theory of creation. The sustain church schools, wherein the Bible is taught in every grade, which cannot be done in our public schools, be they ever so good. The Seventh Day Adventist church school of Sonoma will open for a nine months term on Monday, September 14th, for both old and young, under a competent teacher. From those who are friendly and favorable toward a school of this kind help will be appreciated. More than 10 great lines of Bible prophecy are shining forth upon the human family at this time, and history and commentaries from over 200 different authors are quoted showing the fulfillment of these wonderful portions of God's word, which makes it exceedingly interesting to be living at this time, in the closing scenes of our world's history.

Please examine our books that quote from various authors, showing the fulfillment of Daniel and the Revelation. Call upon Elijah Taylor, a colporteur evangelist for over 40 years, for these books, or Mrs. M. E. Bodwell, secretary and treasurer of the Seventh Day Adventist church school of Sonoma.

EL VERANO MAN GETS FIFTEEN MONTH TERM

Lucien Ducuing, El Verano rancher, who a year ago was sentenced to serve from one to 10 years in San Quentin penitentiary on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, must serve 15 months, according to action taken by the State Board of Prison Directors. Notice of the determination of sentence was filed in the county clerk's office at Santa Rosa the first of the week.

Ducuing was convicted of fraud in an El Verano property deal, it being shown that he had misrepresented the amount of incumbrances on land he sold to Peter Thomsen. He was found guilty by a jury in the superior court and sentenced by Judge Ross Campbell.

His term expires November 2nd as a result of the prison board's action.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McCleary and daughter of San Francisco have been visiting at the Lippi home. Misses Ruby Smith and Olga Lippi, daughters of Mrs. Lippi, have been visiting at the El Verano home also.

Paint in the Spring and be Prepared for the Fall

Paint your house now with a good paint, then it will be in perfect condition next fall. The long summer months will harden the pigment thoroughly to better resist the rigorous blasts of winter.

Monarch Paint 100% Pure

When properly applied to any building at intervals of 5 or 6 years there will be practically no end to the life of that building. Let us help you select your colors.
